Sunday, February 19th
8:45am & 10:30am

David Klinkenberg ~ internationally known, incredible violinist and musician will be joining the worship team and performing a short set for us.

This is a great opportunity to invite your friends and family. If you would like to hear him play you view a clip on the Fathers House website.

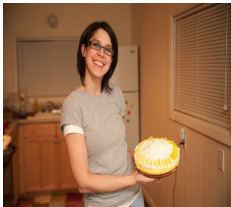

We would like to partner with Cliff Lewis who is a member of the Early Bird Lions. The Early Bird Lions are doing an Outreach Project to collect used glasses and sending them to Africa.

If you do not have a use for your old glasses and would like to donate them to the Lions, there will be a box near the stage. Thank You for your

A note from Pastor Chuck

I remember the episode of Seinfeld when George became a "hand model." His hands were described as exquisite and perfect.

My wife tells me she likes my hands. I like hers too. She told me she wouldn't have married me if I didn't have nice hands! She has encouraged me to get a manicure, although to date I have yet to cave in to this request.

Better than my hands is the "good hand of the Lord." His hands give favor, blessing, healing, power and deliverance. His hands also shield us from things we can't handle. In the book of Ezra, we see that over and over the "good hand of the Lord" was with the people of Israel and Ezra himself. God's hands never go bad. I believe the Bible teaches us that we can have the "good hand of the Lord" and that it is available to all those who know Christ.

George's hands, beautiful as they were, were going to make him a millionaire, but of course, he ended up having his hands severely burned because of Kramer. He lost his hopes and dreams because his hands lost their luster. God's hands never do.

Even without a manicure

Julie Watson, a Restoring Hearts facilitator, leaves February 24th to join Patricia Sujka, who is currently in Bogota, Colombia ministering to post-abortive women through the Restoring Hearts Bible study. Both women volunteer at the Caring Pregnancy Center.

A prayer in preparation for Patricia's trip was that God would provide divine appointments with new moms who had previously aborted, and with women who were pregnant and abortion minded; opening the door for her to share His forgiving and healing power with them.

God has answered the prayers! In addition to leading the Restoring Hearts post-abortion bible study, Patricia has been visiting new moms in the hospitals, delivering layettes and sharing the love of Jesus with them. She also met with a woman who was pregnant and was going to have an abortion. Patricia was able to show her the love of Jesus, give her some baby clothes, a blanket, and the woman has decided to keep her baby! Praise the Lord!!

If you would like to bless the moms of Bogota, Julie will be taking a suitcase with baby clothes. Please contact her at restoringhearts@gmail.com or you may bring your donations to the Caring Pregnancy Center, 1010 Fir St., Longview. 636-3333.
